About Us

The City of Cairns Juvenile Eisteddfod was founded at a meeting held at the Cairns City Council Chambers in October 1955, chaired by the Mayor of the time Mr. W. J. Fulton.

The first Eisteddfod was held from 28 May to 2 June 1956 in the Hibernian Hall, Corner Lake and Florence Streets.

In 1986, our Eisteddfod Society became an Incorporated Association and our name changed to Cairns and District Junior Eisteddfod Association Incorporated.

During the past 56 years, our Eisteddfod has grown from 6 days to 16 days and has necessitated at times using two or three venues at the same time.

The Junior Eisteddfod plays an important role in the fostering of the various arts for the youth of Cairns and District. We are always pleased to welcome visiting competitors who come from throughout Queensland.

A Management Committee controls the Eisteddfod with support from Sub-Committees and Members. New Members are always welcome and our meetings are normally held the 1st Wednesday of the month at the C.D.J.E. Hall, 67-71 Greenslopes Street, Edge Hill at 7.30pm.

The arrangement, and therefore number of voice parts/instruments is at the discretion of the composer. All entries must contain a vocal line. However, the scoring of such arrangements will differ where appropriate, eg: any unaccompanied vocal works will require full scoring for all parts, where an acoustic band (and vocalist) would need only chord charts, vocal line with lyric and a clearly defined form structure. Note: The adjudication is based on the overall presentation (this includes the composition of the song, the content and the performance). All accompanying scores are for the benefit of the adjudicator only. All entries will require full lyrics to be included.
